PRICE ONE CENT.

NOTICE.

THE undersigned have this day effected a partnership for the manufacture of BUGGIES, CARRIAGES, WAGONS and LIGHT PLEASURE VEHICLES of all kinds, in this city, and, in order to meet the growing demand of an already established trade, we will keep constantly on hand a line of our own work, unexcelled by any either in price or quality. We will also aim to carry a cheaper grade of goods for those desiring same. We propose to run our business on a broad gauge. Content with small margins, we intend to batter down the wall of high prices with our engine of quick sales, and we challenge comparison with any. MR. JOHN PORTER will continue with our firm and will give his personal attention to our UNDERTAKING business. Salesroom: No. 16 Sutton Street.

THE NORTH AND SOUTH

IRELAND NOW DIVIDED LIKE AMERICA BEFORE THE WAR.

Mr. Parcell obeyed. Only as an Election Manager—Enthusiastic, energetic, a Blowing-horn and Blowing-Eld, Obedient—Foreign News.

DU BLINE, Oct. 6.—Lord Randolph Churchill is here, looking ill and anxious. Although he is to be a guest of the cause, of the attorney general, Mr. Justice Lord Fitzgerald, it is an open secret that he and Mr. Parcell will meet before those visits take place. "My Lord" returns London Saturday evening, having been invited by his friends of her river home to have so generously entertained him. He has made the Radical champion his conservator. Not till noon, however, did the tumultuous crowd of his supporters, who had gathered outside the venerable churchyard of St. Luke's, Chelsea, to catch a glimpse of the man who had so recently informed them of her river home, make a noisy entrance to the building. The rich, the poor, the respectable and unrespectable, brushed in histrionically after, looking down from a point of vantage in the gallery, the reporter saw Sir Charles walk up the aisle dressed in a black clerical vest, dark coat, gray trousers, and wearing a white skullcap. Beside him walked his best man, whom the last night Punch called "the Chamberlain, my Jemmy." He was fresh from his ornate attire, having put on for the day the simple dress of a barrister, a white gown and robe. Junior, his future baronet, a lad of twelve, waited behind and seemed happy at the prospect of a new mamma. The whole party at once retired to the vestry, where the happy bridegroom proclamed a special service.

At half past twelve the hymn of voices heralded the arrival of the bride attended by her brother, Col. Strong, who gave to the bride a diamond ring. The lady of thirty-five, with a smiling face, with a frank, intelligent and winsome face, gentle eyes and a wealth of chestnut hair. She never winced or shied but proudly moved before the now gospeling people toward her happy husband.

Her dress was rich but simple, for obvious reasons. This being the second marriage of both, she had no desire to be ostentatious. "Tim" Houghton was at a league meeting a few days ago, because he had intended by letter in favor of expanded Alderman, and he was present at the meeting. Alderman, however, was not there, so he had to go to the great library of the National Library, and made himself at home. Valuing the woman's Journal deeply in the extent of the outrages, because each week United Ireland prints column after column of these boycotting, and nearly all of them containing point is reached when the men and women of boycotted man's family are beaten and insulted, their hair cut off, and the like; and most especially so when the width of Michigan is between the son of the great liberator, boycotted, and the King of Ireland, and she and her household really almost starved. They were not allowed to get the absolute necessities of life. These facts, however, serve to tell the whole story.

They were not allowed to get the absolute necessities of life. These facts, however, serve to tell the whole story.

The earnestness of Irishmen is still further shown by the alacrity with which they submit their names to the list of those who will support Mr. Parcell. The local leagues send their names to the conventions. These conventions register Mr. Parcell's will. They are content to defer to policy, to lay down no program for the day.

The conventions met to endorse candidates pledged to absolute individual silence and implicit submission. I. This succeed the "party of the League" goes in a solid phalanx and touches in the nose of commoners, obeying the policy which Mr. Parcell dictates.

This abnegation of will and the extent of their political determination has evidently not been fully realized that took place recently at a meeting of the Kilburn branch of the National League. Conor Ryan, with the snows of a hundred and five winters on his head, came up to Jim the tinker, and said, "I am a tinker, and I have been one of the pikemen in the insurgents, and had made my mark in the terrible struggle fought on the Wexford and Wicklow mountains. I am a tinker, and have sold and exchanged him if, amid trials and dangers, as willing to do battle now, in whatever way it was to be done, as when he first shouldered his rusty weapon."

BELFAST, Oct. 6.—The nullification of the political determination of the Ulsterites seems to indicate that that took place recently at a meeting of the Kilburn branch of the National League. Conor Ryan, with the snows of a hundred and five winters on his head, came up to Jim the tinker, and said, "I am a tinker, and I have been one of the pikemen in the insurgents, and had made my mark in the terrible struggle fought on the Wexford and Wicklow mountains. FERGUSON, N. Y., Oct. 6.—John Hutchinson, the man in whose sections was coming into the city from Washington, on the Northern Pacific railroad, about four miles west of the city, a couple broke into the house of the first of the passengers, and the thief, who was a tinker, shot and killed him.

THE EVENING BULLETIN

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1885.

The political cattle are being corralled for the market next Saturday.

The Eliza nail mills of Newcastle, Pa., start up in all their departments to-day, after an idleness of nearly a year.

The heavy rains throughout the South for the past week or so, it is thought, have seriously injured the cotton crop.

Boston still maintains her superiority. No one has yet succeeded in knocking her Sullivan, and her Puritan has not yet been ousted.

It is expected that General Don Carlos Buell will be appointed Pension Agent for this State, this week, to succeed General R. M. Kelley.

ACCORDING to late census returns, Boston has a population of 186,101 males and 204,305 females. Total, 390,406. Excess of females over males, 18,204.

The small-pox plague shows no abatement at Montreal. There were seventy-three new cases reported last Saturday, of which forty-five were verified.

The people of Montreal are being vaccinated at the rate of 3,000 a day. To accomplish this, however, the authorities had to call to their aid military assistance.

In local politics, the demand for the "foster" is increasing every hour. They come high this time, but it is absolutely necessary to the salvation of the candidates to have them.

There were three hundred new cases of cholera reported throughout Spain last Saturday, and one hundred and seventy-five deaths. At Palermo, one hundred and forty-six new cases and seventy deaths; at Parma nineteen new cases and nine deaths.

The complication of affairs in the old world still gives the correspondents something to write about. The parliamentary campaign in England, the nihilistic troubles in Russia and the Bulgarian revolt all serve to keep things lively beyond the "deep, blue sea."

Does the man who will sell his vote imagine there is no hereafter? This thing of making merchandise out of one's right of franchise will grow into such a monstrous political evil in the course of time that the honest citizens will be compelled to rise up and crush it.

AUDITOR CHINOWORTHY, of the Treasury Department, has again been heard from. This time he has suspended the payment of the accounts of the Fish Commission. The affairs of the commission and its lavish expenditure of public money will probably be subject for Congressional investigation at no distant day.

TITAN is no telling what a drunken man will do sometimes. A fellow filled himself up with liquor the other day at Chicago, delivered himself up to the authorities and then confessed to a murder he had committed over a year ago. A guilty conscience, and the face of his victim ever haunting him, brought about the confession.

DURING the months of March, April and May of this year there were three hundred and ninety-two suicides in this country. An investigation of tabulated statistics on this subject discloses the fact that twelve were caused by desitation, twenty by grief, twenty-five by love troubles, twenty-eight by sickness, twenty-eight by dissipation, thirty-by family trouble, forty-six by family trouble and ninety-three by insanity. Twenty-three wives succumbed and one hundred and fifty-three husbands. Another interesting fact is that suicide is more common among farmers than among persons engaged in other occupations. Of the three hundred and ninety-two suicides in these three months, ninety-one occurred at night, and three hundred and one during day time.

The New York World says: "Since 1873 the Democrats have elected their State candidates in New York seven times and the Republicans four times. In one of the Republican years however, 1879, the United Democracy was in a clear majority of 35,000, and in one of the Democratic years, 1883, the Republicans elected one candidate, the Secretary of State, on the beer issue."

The Democrats fought their battles against the United Republican party in six years out of the seven in which victory was on their side. In the last year of their success, 1884, they fought against a divided Republican party, the Independent Republicans, or Mugwumps, openly supporting the Democratic candidate.

The Democratic majorities in these seven years were as follows: In 1874, 50,917; in 1875, 13,550; in 1877, 11,394; in 1882, 102,854; in 1883, 16,210; and in 1884, when they had the aid of the Mugwumps, 1,047 plurality."

THE CHINESE QUESTION.

Now Matters Look in Washington Territory—Citizens and Mohs.

SEATTLE, W. T., Oct. 6.—Two large meetings were held to discuss the Chinese question. One meeting was organized by the Chinese, who are anxious of quickly getting rid of the Chinese without violence or bloodshed, but unfortunately there is an element here that is in favor of violence, and they are increasing the agitation. Several speakers were present among the speakers at this meeting, and were loudly applauded when making any reference to the idea of forcing the Chinese to leave.

While this meeting was being held in one hall, about seven hundred citizens gathered in the opera house. The man signed a pledge to aid in enforcing the law and assist the officers in collecting over twenty men, armed with clubs, to meet the Chinese. These deputy sheriffs and agents of the peace administered the oath of office.

The town was then distributed into twenty points, each captain for whom a post was appointed. The deputies will form twenty companies, and when properly armed will be able to furnish ample security against riots.

OCEANS OF FIRE.

Dakota Swept by Furious Flames—Great Losses—Destitution.

FAMOUS, D. T., Oct. 6.—The most disastrous fire has swept the past few days, except over McPherson and Campbell, new counties settled almost entirely in the last two years, in the central region northwest of Aberdeen. The greater portion of the town is dry and ready to stay the flames are futile.

In McPherson, the greater portion of the county has been burned over, destroying all buildings and crops, leaving nothing but ashes. In Lake county the loss is believed to be fully $300,000. In the bad lands south of the Missouri river, one-third of the grass is burned, leaving scanty feed for herds. There are numerous fires in the Red River valley.

New York—Money 4 per cent. Exchange quiet. Government firm, 138 1/2; oil, 100; copper, 121 1/2; tin, 100; lead, 100.

The new week opened at the stock exchange with a strong and active market, first prices showing a decided advance, and none of the stocks on the active list having fallen.

The general market has been strong throughout the hour, advancing still further. In the early morning the market was very active, the Grangers, Lackawanna and Lake Shore, the gains amounting to 1/2 to 3 per cent. After a quiet interval, however, the market became with a very heavy business, advanced only small fractions during the rest of the day. In the last part of the hour Wall Street Union, and the Standard & Poor's, showed a decided advance in trading. At 11 o'clock the market is active and strong.

RIVER NEWS.

DUE UP.

Bonanza—Cin—Latni to Portsmouth...8 p.m. Monday—Linton—Portsmouth—8 p.m. L. P. Ewald—Pomeroy—12 m.

DUE DOWN.

Cumberland—Vanceburg—Cincinnati 5 p.m. Monday—Cincinnati—Columbus—8 p.m. L. P. Ewald—Pomeroy—12 m.

The Bonanza is due from Vanceburg daily (except Sunday) at 8 a.m. She leaves on her return trip at 12:30 p.m.

The Sam J. Keith is due from Cincinnati about 12:30 p.m. and 5 p.m. on her leave of return trip at 12:30 a.m.

The Hattie makes two round trips (one each way) between this place and Astoria, arriving here at 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

The prospects for a rise at head-waters are good.

All the packets are making good time this week.

Two feet six inches and stationary at Pittsburgh.

WILL S. HAYS' MELODIES.—Now the Ohio River Commission wants $4,000,000 or $5,000,000 from Uncle Sam to lock and dam the river between here and Pittsburgh. It comes very near being "locked" by the dam observations now, and if Uncle Sam don't quit "monkeying" with it, it will be the worst dammed river in the world. We can't understand why there are so many mosquitoes on the river in summer time, when it is known that bats are so plentiful. The railroads are getting away with the river business. Nobody to blame but the boatmen themselves. While boatmen run and fight and play the "goosebite" among themselves, the railroad chaps take advantage of the unbusiness-like situation, jump in and "lick the platter."

"As leaf by leaf the roses fall,
Those soon will be no more at all."

—[Continuer-Journal.]

THE question of the hour—"Who will get there next Saturday?"

C. S. Young & Co., have the largest line of underwear in the State. Prices from 50 cents to $5.00. Call and examine stock before buying.

THE funeral of the political dead will take place some time after next Saturday, but it is impossible at this writing to tell whose funeral it will be.

Twenty years ago a man out in Nevada invested his capital of $500 in a Durham cow. Since then he has sold $40,000 worth of high-bred stock, and is now one of the "cattle kings" of that State.

Dances.

Hunt's Reed and Brass Band will give a dance at the new Amazon Hall next Friday and Saturday evenings. Good order and good music. Refreshments at the hall.

THE tank for the new gas works has been completed, and covered with freestone. It is pronounced an excellent piece of work by competent judges. The works will be completed as early as possible.

THE steamer Sonoma will leave for Vaneburg next Wednesday at 12 o'clock. After that date she will leave at her regular hour. She will take the Uncle Tom's Cabin Troupe to Vaneburg Wednesdays.

WILLIAM PALMER, sixty years of age, and a prominent merchant of Bedford, Ind., has eloped with a dissolute woman of that place. Palmer had a wife and six children, and was in good financial condition.

Mrs. ISAAC REESE, of Fern Leaf Precinct, announces himself to-day as a candidate for County Surveyor, subject to the Primary election next Saturday. He is an industrious farmer and a good citizen of that locality.

A RATHER novel method is practiced by a farmer down South to relieve choked cattle. He dashes cold water into their ears. This causes the animal to shake its head violently and the necessary muscular action dislodges the obstruction.

It is not safe to follow out every piece of advice given to these falls. An editor of an agricultural newspaper not long ago was told that a little coal oil poured into the mouth made by peacock-bores would kill the insects. He tried it, and succeeded in killing the tree as well as the borer.

THE trial of Robert Farrell for the murder of Thomas Calvert is in progress in the Nicholas Circuit Court this week. It began Monday. It is reported that a jury was secured that day, and that the examination of witnesses will begin this morning. As there are a number of witnesses the trial will probably consume the greater part of this week.

Notice.

A meeting of the Directors of the Young Men's Kentucky Fair Company will be held at the Secretary's office, at 12 o'clock next Thursday afternoon. All are requested to be present.

Virtue in the Family.

There are all sorts and degrees of virtue, and sometimes we are told that virtue is its own reward. Mr. A. F. Evans, of Burr's Ferry, La., says, in writing about Brown's Iron Bittes: "I have been the recipient of its virtue in my family to a considerable extent." This great iron tonic has superior advantages as a reliable family medicine. Its power has been thoroughly tried, and its virtues abundantly proved. Nearly a million bottles a year are sold by the druggists of this country.

A RATHER amusing thing happened at one of the most fashionable chanceries at Louisville last Sunday. The Lord's Supper was being celebrated. As the wine was passed from one member to another, each cup was followed by a puckering of the mouth, and a terrible grimace. Some relieved themselves by coughing and others in different ways. After services were over the discovery was made that vinegar had been passed to the members instead of wine. The mistake was caused by one of the good deacons keeping a wine jug and vinegar jug very similar in appearance. The deacon had forgotten to sample the contents beforehand.

PROFESSOR C. C. BLAKE, the weather prophet, of Richland, Kan., in his predictions for October and November says: "People who intend putting in winter wheat should now get it in as soon as possible, so that it may get well rooted before the ground freezes, as there will be cold weather in November next that will freeze the ground, though not very deep, in most of the Northern States; and wheat that is put in so late that it does not well root before the ground freezes, stands a poor chance to live through the winter. This year the cold is November will be earlier and more severe than usual, but as most of October will be quite a favorable month for all work, most people, by diligence, can be well prepared for winter before the early cold weather will seriously interfere. The frosts in November will extend nearly to the Gulf of Mexico."

The employment of natural gas as fuel by manufacturing concerns may, remarks the American Railway Review, mean more to our industrial interests than has generally anticipated.

"Great sums of money have been invested in changed plans by many heavy houses who figure upon material profits through the use of the fuel. Despite the dangers which the timid ascribe to its use, and the lack of absolute certainty as to the permanence of supply, the heavy capitalists of Pittsburgh have enough faith to warrant these large expenditures. Some of the anticipated results, in the way of savings, have already made themselves felt. For instance, it is estimated by good judges that there are already three thousand tons less of coal burned in Pittsburgh per day than there were before natural gas was used. This takes away a local business of $2,000,000 or more a year. One concern saves $100 a day in wages formerly paid to men who wheeled out ashes. The decrease in smoke in the atmosphere is already noticeable."

In response to the invitation extended last Saturday, a large number of our citizens visited Hays' Female Seminary Monday afternoon. The new school building completed last week is an unpretentious one-story framework structure. Inside, however, it presents a bright appearance and is excellently arranged for a school building. The location of the seminary is a healthy and pleasant one, and as good as can be found in this city. There is but very little to draw the pupils' attention away from their studies.

The exercises Monday afternoon, consisted of illustrations of the methods of instruction pursued at the school, calligraphic exercises, and music, and were instructive and entertaining throughout.

The visitors came away well pleased.

The new building contains six rooms, all of which are nicely arranged and furnished. Its construction was begun sometime in August, and, according to the contract, was to be finished by the first of this month. It was completed and the keys handed over on the 2nd instant.

A WISE LITTLE BOY.

A boy threw his hat on to the floor. And was told he must do so no more, "And his fond mother then Used her slipper until he was sore."

The boy then looked up askance, And his fond mother said, "Do you know now?" said she.

"Where have I ought to be?"

"Yes," he answered. [Green County Events.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MATILDA.

Corn eating is now in full blast and crops reported heavy.

Most of the tobacco is hoed and saving heavy.

We have had a few light showers of late, which will help the grain grow.

Mr. J. G. Green, a widower, Mrs.

Mosby, who have been visiting here for several weeks past, left for their home in Mason.

John and Anna, wife and wife, were both here with them.

Friends who were lost to part with them. Welcome back again.

KENTUCKY NEWS.

Scarlet and typhoid fever is prevailing, in a mild form, at Frankfort.

The Henderson fair was not a success.

Rain every day, a small attendance in consequence.

Hon. James H. Mulligan, of Lexington, is spoken of as a candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

Frankfort is threatened with a water famine. Cisterns are low and wells about exhausted.

The farmers of Sympon County worked all last evening cutting tobacco to save it from being taken from them.

Baldwin County has a one hundred and fifty pound water melon, and a pumpkin of immense size.

The Stanford school district has voted a tax of 20 per cent. on the $100 for three years, to build a school house.

James W. Berry, of Fayette County, owner of 150 acres of land, has reported a sum of $15,000 to $20,000.

The total number of patients in the Eastern Lunatic Asylum at Lexington is 688. The books of the institution show, receipts $101,137.37, and disbursements $75,000.

Last Monday there were shipped from Louisville to J. B. Higgins a million acre of California, forty-eight fine yearling colts. They were purchased at a cost of $41,700 at the last sale spring.

The following postoffice appointments have been made for this State: Butlerville, Booker Petty, Benoni, Mrs. Lucy A. Johnson, Wickliffe, Samuel J. Moore, and Mrs. Sudey Young; Wings, J. V. Morrow.

The Woodford Sun says: "Our farmers have cut a large portion of their tobacco, perhaps three-fourths. The quality can't, of course, be determined yet, but the crop is much better than last year."

Bentonville, the county seat of Knob County, will soon be connected with the outside world by telephone. The line between that place and Woodbine, a station on the L. and N. Railroad, will be completed at no distant day.

Commissioner of Agriculture Davis, in his monthly crop report, says:

"On the whole, the general tone of the letters from the farmers of the State is to the effect that the farmers have little to complain of—as they express it."

O. B. Lathan a saloon-keeper at Dunnmore, near Central City was assassinated last Saturday night. He died after a short struggle. His slayer is not known, but there are strong suspicions as to who he is. A woman is said to be the cause of the trouble.

Bloomfield is stirred to its depths by a sensational scandal. Miss Anna Smith, daughter of a wealthy farmer, is about to become the bride of Senator Moore, but there are strong suspicions as to who he is. A woman is said to be the cause of the trouble.

NATIONAL NUGGETS.

CLAIM OF THE HEIRS OF GENERAL WARD B. BURNETT.

Mormon Missionaries Sent to India Make & Disraeli Factions—No Special Delivery on Sunday—Personal and Political—

—Washington—Notes.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—By the August steamer for Alaska most of the civil officers received notice of their suspension and the appointment of new incumbents, and by the last steamer news of the appointment of the Indian Gen. System. Among the exceptions to that steamer were Senator Jones and family, of Nevada.

The acting second controller has directed to make a claim of the heirs of Gen. Ward B. Burnett for extra pay for services in the Mexican war as was paid for above the rank of colonel. It was argued in support of his claim for extra pay as brigadier general that he was promoted as such at the expense of the government by the governor of New York. The comptroller held that such a commission was not valid as against the United States. Gen. Burnett was appointed a colonel by the president, with the advice and consent of the Senate, and his back pay can only be computed according to the pay of that grade.

It is reported that the transfer of the silver cargo of the steamer India from steamers Swan and Yantic to the United States treasury will be completed soon. Many of the boxes containing the bags of silver were wet during the voyage, and it will be necessary to open and reclose them before sealing up the silver dollars on the floor of the vault. This silver had to be weighed and verified. The rest of the silver will be counted after it has been received at the treasury, at the convenience of the force of clerks regularly employed to count such receipts.

Senators Breckinridge and Jones, of Arkansas, called on the president to urge him to increase the sum appropriated to improve a recommendation for liberal appropriations to improve the navigation of the Mississippi river and its tributaries. They report that the president showed marked interest in the subject, and they considered the interview very satisfactory.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The president has appointed the following named postmasters: Benj. F. Devos, at Independence, Kas.; Thomas A. McLeary, Medicine Lodge, Kas.; S. A. Carroll, Hesston, Kas.; Thomas R. Love, Wichita, Kas.; John C. Campbell, Fort Smith, Kas.; Martin N. Sennott, Arkansas City, Kas.; Harry S. Dean, Stockbridge, Mass.; Albert A. Haggard, Lowell, Mass.; A. H. Dudley, Princeton, Ky.; Wm. Swall, Belvidere, Ill.; John C. Campbell, Atlanta, Ga.; Peter McNamee, Grand Rapids, Wis.; Thomas Bowman, Iowa City, Iowa; James W. Beattie, Marshfield, Wis.; Chas. G. Haganauer, Highland, Ill.; John Hill, Indianapolis, Ind.; Wm. H. Howard, Columbus, Ohio; Henry P. Howard, San Antonio, Tex.; Lewis Lowry, Cameron, Mo.; B. F. Elisbury, Ironwood, O.; J. D. Waterman, Rockford, Ill.; J. J. Brinker, West Point, N. Y.; Edward T. Baker, New Haven, Conn.; F. L. Whetstone, York, Neb.; C. G. Hadley, Way, Del Norte, Cal.; Lyman Thompson, South Fulton, Col.; C. S. Clark, Tombstone, Ariz.; Charles H. Higginson, Lamar, Mo.; David C. French, Little Rock, Ark. The above list of appointments were made to fill vacancies caused by the suspension of ten postmasters. The other appointments were made to fill vacancies caused by resignations.

Mormons to India.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Reports have been received through official channels of the apparent utter failure of a recent Mormon mission sent to India. The mission consisted of Elder Miller and Mrs. McConkie, and Prof. Lester Wright, who was sent to the United States vice consul to the secretary of state. Minister Lowell by direction of Secretary Frémington officially called the attention of the British authorities to the project, and appropriate instructions were issued to the proper authorities, with a view to checking any shipment of Mormon recruits to the United States or to India, or to any countries to which they might go. Minister Lowell's communication was forwarded, stating that the harm done by the Mormons had been inappreciable, and that in the opinion of the government no special measures were at present necessary, but that in case of any further trouble, or if women the provision of the penal code would be applied. The Mormons made no converts in Calcutta. They separated and visited other parts of India, and were reported to have converted two or three persons, but finally became so much reduced in finances that they were compelled to seek help, and one or more of them left India in state of destitution.

She Holds On.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Recently the postmaster general appointed an postmaster in Illinois town. A young lady who was sixteen years old. She filed her bond and entered upon her duties, when the postoffice was informed that according to the laws of Illinois she was too young to be responsible, as she could not be of age before twenty-one. The master was referred to the assistant attorney general of the post-office department, who decided she was a woman fit for the position and that her bonds were legally responsible to the government, though by the law of Illinois she was still a minor.

No Special Delivery on Sunday.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The postmaster general has made the following announcement of the policy of the department in regard to the treatment of letters bearing special delivery stamps received in postoffices on Sunday:

"It is not expected by the department that postmasters shall require messengers in the postoffices to make special delivery on Sunday. Postmasters are requested to keep their offices open to any different extent than is now provided by the different regulations and usage for special delivery purposes."
